We do not have an update for your case specifically, but the work we do for the currently-filed arbitrations moves forward all cases. We are awaiting decisions from arbitrators in two arbitrations that have been completed. When we have an update for your case specifically, we will certainly reach out.

I hope you had a great holiday and have a wonderful week ahead!

RE: ANDREW JAMES PIGORS v EMILY ANN WATSON

Dear ANDREW JAMES PIGORS:

We have received your response to the State Tax Refund Pre-Offset Notice . Upon review, the amount owed, at the time of the notice, is correct. Per August 23, 2024 Uniform Support Order, support was effective July 17, 2024. Payments started coming in after the order was entered, during the month of September. There would be arrears from those previous months. The offset notice is generated from the State of Michigan and is making you aware that any arrears owed at the time of tax filing is subject to a tax garnishment for that amount. These notice go out every September to anyone in arrears at that time. Enclosed is a ledger showing charges and current balance. If you feel there is further mistake of fact, please submit a letter to the Friend of the Court with your proofs of error for us to review.

Sincerely,

Family Court Services
