

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF MUSKEGON

ANDREW J. PIGORS,
Plaintiff

CASE 2024-001507-DC

HON. JENNY L. MCNEILL

vs.

ORDER DENYING MOTION
REGARDING CUSTODY,
PARENTING TIME & CHILD SUPPORT

EMILY A. WATSON,
Defendant

ORDER REGARDING BOND REQUIREMENT

Three motions: a Motion for Change of Custody, Motion Regarding Parenting Time and a Motion Regarding Support were filed by the Plaintiff on 4/24/25. These make 15 motions that the Plaintiff has filed since he initiated this case. A custody trial was held in July 2024. The Plaintiff was warned regarding filing frivolous motions on multiple occasions. The Plaintiff indicated to the Court that he would continue filing until he got what he wanted. In addition, the Plaintiff filed an action under the Extreme Risk Protection Act which was baseless (2024-001588-EP). He recently filed a Motion to dismiss a violation of the personal protection order, which included fake statutes and law. He has had multiple violations of the PPO (2023-005907-PP).

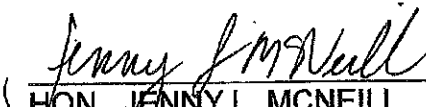

Plaintiff has continued to harass the Defendant using the App Close, to the point that the Court removed his ability to communicate via App Close at the last PPO Court date. The Plaintiff describes the communications on the App as "repeated refusals, denials and manipulations by Defendant" when in fact, it is he who is harassing and attempting manipulation in the communications. He accuses the Defendant of violating the order, when the Plaintiff simply exercised her holiday parenting time (which fell on his regularly scheduled weekend). Plaintiff alleges that he is entitled to four weekends in April. He is court ordered every other weekend. He was not granted every weekend. There is no scenario where he would have missed four weekends. The motions are frivolous.

Pursuant to MCR 3.210(C)(8), the Court has made a determination, based upon the pleadings and a review of the files, that the moving party has not presented a prima facie showing of proper cause or a change of circumstances as required by MCLA 722.27.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this matter is dismissed without an evidentiary hearing. It is further ordered that the Plaintiff must pay a bond of $250 (for each motion) before he may file another motion in this matter. The Court will then review the motion. If the Court determines that the motion is frivolous, the Plaintiff will forfeit the bond and the Motion will be dismissed.

Dated: 5/19/25

HON. JENNY L. MCNEILL
CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE