4 THE COURT: Okay, we are on the record in file
5 number 2023-5907-PP. In the matter of Emily Watson
6 versus Andrew Pigors.

7 (EXCERPT 1 OF PROCEEDINGS)

8 (At 9:42 a.m., selected portion of the 9 transcript as requested)

10 MR. PIGORS: This is regarding the service of 11 the PPO violation that I received on Sunday the 20th. I
12 received it in the fashion that during the exchange, her 13 father was the one to serve it. Her father also verbally 14 assaulted me last November and I've expressed that within 15 the AppClose app; my discomfort in dealing with him with 16 exchanges. He grabbed my son from me and then threw the 17 PPO into my vehicle while laughing and saying, "Ha-ha,
18 now you're served." And that's how I was served this PPO
19 violation paperwork at the police station. And it's 20 ongoing intimidation tactics that are being used for the 21 last nine months. And I have evidence that shows that 22 things were manipulated to obtain the PPO in the first 23 place.

24 THE COURT: Well, we already -- we've already - 25 - we're -- we're not gonna' --

1 MR. PIGORS: Right.

2 THE COURT: -- relitigate that.

3 MR. PIGORS: I just -- I'm inexperienced. I
4 don't have any court experience when --

5 THE COURT: Well, I have to hold you to the 6 same standard and I've already told you, we're not going 7 to relitigate it. So, if -- you've had your opportunity,
8 you don't get to -- just because -- just because you
9 don't like decisions that are made, doesn't mean we're 10 gonna -- you -- you seem to have this idea that it didn't 11 go your way. So, we're gonna' -- I'm gonna' keep filing
12 and filing and filing and filing. And it doesn't work 13 that way. We relitigate it -- we already litigated the 14 issue of the PPO. We're not going to do it again.

15 MR. PIGORS: But there's new evidence. If 16 there's new evidence, am I allowed to file that?

17 THE COURT: I did not see -- there was nothing 18 new in your --

19 MR. PIGORS: Okay. But moving forward, if 20 there is new evidence regarding PPO violations on --

21 THE COURT: No. First of all --

22 MR. PIGORS: -- them?

23 THE COURT: -- the PPO -- the only person that 24 can violate the PPO is you.

25 MR. PIGORS: So, if --

1 THE COURT: The PPO orders you to do things,
2 not her. It orders you --

3 MR. PIGORS: But if a third party from her side
4 is threatening or harassing me, what recourse do I have 5 and what should I do then?

6 THE COURT: I can't give you any legal advice
7 as to what to do, but it doesn't have anything to do with 8 this PPO. This PPO is between you and her and --

9 MR. PIGORS: But it's intrinsically entwined
10 with the custody of my son. It's all revolving around my 11 son. Everything. This entire thing is to alienate me
12 from my son. That's the whole point of the PPO. There's 13 no danger. She's never been in danger from me.

14 THE COURT: But that's your opinion. And I --
15 I already told you, we're not -- we're not gonna'
16 relitigate this. So, I don't know, did -- are you saying 17 that her dad assaulted you at the exchange?

18 MR. PIGORS: I have police reports from -- 19 yeah, yeah, he ripped my son on my arms and threw the 20 PPO. That's aggressive --

21 THE COURT: Did the police -- did the police
22 charge him?

23 MR. PIGORS: I sat in the parking lot debating
24 on whether I should go in and file a report. I didn't 25 for fear of this exact instance. I'm tired. This has

1 been a long year. I've been trying to learn a lot every 2 day to try to combat this because the reduction of my 3 time with my son, it's -- it's not good for him. And I 4 know we can't discuss the custody, but they're -- they're 5 entwined and he's showing signs of aggression. He comes 6 with marks and bruises. I mean, there -- I have 600
7 pieces of evidence against Ms. Watson. I have a hundred 8 gigabytes of pictures of just me and my son and him being 9 happy. This is killing me. And I know if it's hurting
10 me, it's hurting him. There's a -- it's so complicated.
11 There's so much and it's intentionally done this way. I 12 can't even -- I have money for a lawyer. I have 13 insurance for a lawyer. I can't get one to take the case 14 because of its complexity. I've talked to five. I've 15 had three retained and none of them will follow through.
16 I'm on islands.

17 (EXCERPT 2 OF PROCEEDINGS)

18 (At 10:00 a.m., the second portion of the 19 transcript as requested)

20 THE COURT: Your -- your family isn't a part of 21 this, but it would be helpful if they just have no
22 communication with him, no text messages, no anything.
23 All right?

24 MS. WATSON: Yep.

25 THE COURT: If you could please tell them that?

MR. PIGORS: Thank you.

THE COURT: To just kind of stay out of it, to just leave it be.

MR. PIGORS: Does that go for exchanges as well? Because --

MS. .WATSON: That's fine with me -- but those messages are coming from him initially.

THE COURT: Okay. .
