

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's Attorney of Record shall recalculate child support and shall prepare a Uniform Child Support Order with an effective date of July 17, 2024, based upon the following modifications: childcare expenses set at zero dollars; Defendant's monthly income shall be the same amount; Defendant shall claim the minor child on her annual taxes as Plaintiff is unemployed; Defendant shall be given credit for her other minor child; Defendant shall be identified as head of household; Plaintiff's monthly income shall be calculated as $2,115.00 per month from self-employment; Plaintiff shall be identified as filing his taxes as single.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall keep each other informed of the name and address of his or her current source of income and of any health care coverage that is available to him or her as a benefit of employment or that is maintained by him or her; the name of the insurance company, health care organization, or health maintenance organization; the policy, certificate or contract number; and the names and birth dates of the persons for whose benefit he or she maintains health care coverage under the policy, certificate or contract.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all health care services including, but not limited to, orthodontia, optical, and prescription expenses of the minor child which are not covered by insurance, including those medical bills accumulated to date, shall be paid pursuant to the uninsured medical cost percentages outlined in the attached Uniform Child Support Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall encourage the minor child to participate in extra-curricular activities. The party exercising parenting time shall be responsible for ensuring that the minor child attends any practices, games, competitions, scrimmages, meets, ect., with timely presentation to said activity, in proper attire, and with all equipment necessary to actively participate. The parties shall equally share in the expenses related to the extra-curricular activities.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that when either party secures or loses employment or obtains a substantially greater or lesser wage or salary from his or her present or future employment, they shall notify the Muskegon County Friend of the Court within ten (10) days in order that the amount of support may be adjusted accordingly, in the event that a formal child support obligation payable through the Friend of the Court has been established or exists at any such relevant time.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant shall claim the minor child on her annual tax returns.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that both Plaintiff and Defendant shall notify one another and the Office of the Friend of the Court within twenty-one (21) days of any change of address so long as this Judgment of Custody, Parenting Time, and Child Support remains operative.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that since Defendant has been granted sole legal and sole physical custody and pursuant to this Court's Order from the Bench, Defendant may take the minor child on her scheduled vacation cruise in the fall/winter of 2024, which likely involves a Country that does not participate in the Hague Convention. Defendant shall provide Plaintiff with the dates for the vacation as soon as possible. If the vacation affects Plaintiff's scheduled parenting time, Defendant may still take the minor child on the vacation but shall provide Plaintiff with make-up parenting time during Defendant's next parenting time weekend.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the domicile or residence of the minor child shall be located in Michigan. The domicile of the minor child shall not be moved from Michigan without the approval of the Judge who awarded custody or the Judge's successor. The person awarded custody must promptly notify the Friend of the Court in writing when the minor child is moved to another address.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a parent whose custody or parenting time of the minor child is governed by this Judgment shall not change the legal residence of the child except in compliance with Section 11 of the "Child Custody Act of 1970," 1970 Public Act 91, being MCL 722.31, et seq., which provides that the legal residence of the minor child shall not be changed to a location that is more than 100 miles from the child's legal residence at the time of this Judgment, unless: (i) the other parent consents to the change; (ii) sole legal custody is granted to only one of the parents; (iii) the court permits the residence change after complying with subsection (4) of Section 11 of the Child Custody Act of 1970, or (iv) if an agreement of the parties is set forth in this Judgment as to how a change in the minor child's legal residence will be handled and the change in residence is handled in compliance with said agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that unless otherwise ordered by the Court, or consented to in writing by both parties, neither parent shall exercise parenting time in a foreign country/nation that is not a party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the minor child of the parties shall have the inherent rights to the natural affection and love of both parties, neither party shall do anything which may estrange the minor child from the other party, or tend to discredit, cause disrespect, or diminish for the natural affections of the minor child for the other party.

IT IS SO ORDERED
