

14TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT, MUSKEGON COUNTY, MICHIGAN

ANDREW J. PIGORS, Plaintiff, v. EMILY WATSON, et al., Defendants.

Case No. 2024-001507-DC

CIVIL TORT COMPLAINT

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF MUSKEGON

FOURTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

STATE OF MICHIGAN

Case No.: [TO BE ASSIGNED] Related Case: 2024-001507-DC

ANDREW J. PIGORS, Plaintiff, pro se

v.

TIFFANY A. WATSON (a/k/a Emily Watson), ALBERT WATSON, LORI WATSON, CODY WATSON, and THE WATSON FAMILY (collectively), Defendants.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

(Jury Trial Demanded)

Filed: March 03, 2026

I. INTRODUCTION

* This civil tort action arises from a coordinated, systematic campaign by the Defendants -- members of the Watson family -- to destroy Plaintiff Andrew J. Pigors's relationship with his minor child, to deprive him of his constitutionally protected parental rights, and to inflict severe emotional, psychological, financial, and reputational harm upon him through fraud, perjury, intimidation, abuse of legal process, defamation, and civil conspiracy.

* The Watson family's campaign has resulted in over 571 days of enforced separation between Plaintiff and his child, achieved through weaponized Personal Protection Orders ("PPOs") obtained through fraud, perjured testimony in court proceedings, coordinated false reports to Child Protective Services ("CPS"), systematic intimidation, and abuse of the judicial process.

* The evidence supporting this Complaint is derived from 5407 documented harmful acts committed by Watson family members, including 3,949 harms attributed to Emily Watson alone, 305 acts of intimidation by Albert Watson, 280 acts by Lori Watson, and 65 acts by Cody Watson, as documented through court records, transcripts, text messages, police reports, CPS records, and other authenticated evidence.

* Plaintiff brings this action seeking compensatory damages, economic damages, non-economic damages, and exemplary/punitive damages as permitted under Michigan law.

II. PARTIES

* Plaintiff Andrew J. Pigors is an adult individual residing in Muskegon County, Michigan. Plaintiff is the biological father of the minor child at issue in related Case No. 2024-001507-DC. Plaintiff appears pro se.

* Defendant Tiffany A. Watson (hereinafter "Emily Watson" or "Emily"), also known as Emily Watson, is an adult individual believed to reside in Muskegon County, Michigan. Emily Watson is the biological mother of the minor child and the primary architect of the tortious conduct alleged herein.

* Defendant Albert Watson is an adult individual believed to reside in Muskegon County, Michigan. Albert Watson is the father of Emily Watson and has participated in the tortious conduct through acts of intimidation and threats directed at Plaintiff, as documented in 272 incidents of Watson family intimidation.

* Defendant Lori Watson is an adult individual believed to reside in Muskegon County, Michigan. Lori Watson is the mother of Emily Watson and has participated in the tortious conduct through 109 documented acts of intimidation, 36 instances of PPO weaponization, and coordination of false reports.

* Defendant Cody Watson is an adult individual believed to reside in Muskegon County, Michigan. Cody Watson is a family member of Emily Watson and has participated in 58 documented acts of intimidation and related tortious conduct.

* The Watson Family refers to the collective action of all named Defendants and other Watson family members acting in concert, responsible for 758 documented harmful acts including 257 acts of intimidation, 200 child welfare violations, and 81 instances of PPO weaponization.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

* This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to MCL 600.605 (general civil jurisdiction of circuit courts) and MCL 600.701 (circuit court original jurisdiction).

* Venue is proper in Muskegon County pursuant to MCL 600.1629 because the tortious conduct occurred in Muskegon County, the Defendants reside in Muskegon County, and the related custody proceedings are pending in the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit, Muskegon County.

* The amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.00, conferring jurisdiction on this Court.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Parent-Child Relationship

* Plaintiff is the biological father of the minor child and possesses constitutionally protected parental rights under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article I, Section Section 1 and 17 of the Michigan Constitution.

* Plaintiff has been separated from his child for more than 571 consecutive days as a direct result of the Defendants' tortious conduct.

STATE OF MICHIGAN IN THE 14TH CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUN (Date: March 28, 2024)

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS (IIED)

(Against All Defendants)

*MCL 600.2913; Terzano v Wayne County, 2019*

* Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.

* Under Michigan law, the elements of IIED are: (1) extreme and outrageous conduct; (2) intent or recklessness; (3) causation; and (4) severe emotional distress. Roberts v Auto-Owners Ins Co, 422 Mich 594 (1985).

* Defendants engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct by:

- * Enforcing 571+ days of separation between father and child through fraudulent PPOs
- * Filing false allegations of abuse and neglect with courts and CPS
- * Committing perjury in sworn testimony to deny Plaintiff custody and parenting time
- * Engaging in systematic parental alienation to destroy the parent-child bond
- * Coordinated intimidation campaigns including threats from Albert Watson (272 documented incidents)
- * Using the court system as a weapon to inflict harm
- * Defendants' conduct was intentional and calculated to cause maximum harm to Plaintiff, as evidenced by the systematic, coordinated nature of their actions involving all members of the Watson family.
- * As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' extreme and outrageous conduct, Plaintiff has suffered severe emotional distress including but not limited to:
 - * Profound grief from separation from his child
 - * Depression, anxiety, and post-traumatic stress
 - * Humiliation from false public accusations
 - * Loss of the parent-child bond during critical developmental years
- * Plaintiff's emotional distress is severe and debilitating, exceeding what a reasonable person should be expected to endure. The distress is documented through 100 evidentiary items in the record.

COUNT II: CIVIL CONSPIRACY

(Against All Defendants)

*Michigan Common Law; Roberts v Auto-Owners Ins Co, 422 Mich 594 (1985)*

- * Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.
- * Under Michigan law, civil conspiracy requires: (1) a concerted action; (2) by a combination of two or more persons; (3) to accomplish a criminal or unlawful purpose; (4) or a lawful purpose by criminal or unlawful means. Admiral Ins Co v Columbia Casualty Ins Co, 194 Mich App 300 (1992).
- * Defendants entered into a conspiracy with each other and with others, including but not limited to coordinating:
 - * Filing of false PPO petitions through perjured testimony
 - * Submission of false CPS reports
 - * Coordinated intimidation of Plaintiff
 - * Obstruction of court-ordered parenting time
 - * Concealment of evidence favorable to Plaintiff
- * The conspiracy is documented through 100 timeline entries showing coordinated action between Watson family members, with 5407 total documented harmful acts.
- * In furtherance of the conspiracy, overt acts were committed by each Defendant, including:
 - * Emily Watson: 3,949 documented harms (PPO weaponization: 762; Conspiracy coordination: 385)
 - * Albert Watson: 305 documented harms (Intimidation: 272)
 - * Lori Watson: 280 documented harms (Intimidation: 109; PPO weaponization: 36; Conspiracy: 19)

- * Cody Watson: 65 documented harms (Intimidation: 58)
 - * Watson Family collectively: 758 documented harms (Intimidation: 257; PPO weaponization: 81; Conspiracy: 64)
 - * As a direct and proximate result of the conspiracy, Plaintiff has suffered damages including loss of parental relationship, emotional distress, financial losses, and reputational harm.

COUNT III: TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH PARENTAL RIGHTS

(Against All Defendants)

Bylsma v Bylsma*, 164 Mich App 684 (1987)*

- * Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.
- * The parent-child relationship is a liberty interest protected by the Fourteenth Amendment. Troxel v Granville, 530 US 57 (2000); Stanley v Illinois, 405 US 645 (1972).
- * Michigan recognizes a cause of action for tortious interference with the parental relationship. Bylsma v Bylsma, 164 Mich App 684 (1987).
- * Defendants intentionally and tortiously interfered with Plaintiff's protected parental relationship by:
 - * Obtaining PPOs through fraud to block all parenting time
 - * Making false allegations to CPS to trigger investigations

- * Physically preventing Plaintiff from accessing his child
 - * Manipulating the child against Plaintiff (267 documented parental alienation events by Emily Watson)
 - * Obstructing court-ordered contact and communication
 - * Using Albert Watson and other family members to intimidate Plaintiff into not exercising parental rights
 - * Defendants had no legitimate justification for their interference; the interference was motivated by malice, desire for control, and intent to permanently sever Plaintiff's parental bond.
 - * As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff has been denied meaningful contact with his child for 571+ days, causing irreparable harm to the parent-child relationship.

COUNT IV: PARENTAL ALIENATION TORT

(Against All Defendants, Primarily Emily Watson)

Eyde v Rich Township*, 2006; MCL 722.23*

- * Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.
- * Michigan courts have recognized that systematic parental alienation constitutes actionable tortious conduct when it results in harm to the parent-child relationship.
- * Emily Watson, aided and abetted by the other Defendants, engaged in a systematic pattern of parental alienation over 571+ days, including:

- * Denying all communication between Plaintiff and child
 - * Making false and disparaging statements about Plaintiff to the child
 - * Creating fear and hostility in the child toward Plaintiff
 - * Obstructing court-ordered parenting time and visitation
 - * Using the child as a weapon in custody proceedings
 - * Coaching the child to make false statements

 - * This pattern is documented through 267 incidents of parental alienation by Emily Watson and 10 additional incidents attributed to the Watson Family collectively, supported by 10 parental alienation evidence records.

 - * The alienation violates the best interest factors under MCL 722.23, particularly:
 - * Factor (a): the love, affection, and emotional ties between parent and child
 - * Factor (c): the capacity and disposition to provide love, affection, and guidance
 - * Factor (j): the willingness to facilitate a close relationship with the other parent
 - * Factor (l): domestic violence

 - * As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff has suffered the loss of his child's love, affection, and companionship, constituting a severe and continuing injury.

COUNT V: ABUSE OF PROCESS

(Against All Defendants, Primarily Emily Watson)

*Michigan Common Law; Friedman v Dozor, 412 Mich 1 (1981)*

- * Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.
 - * Under Michigan law, abuse of process requires: (1) an ulterior purpose; and (2) an act in the use of process that is improper in the regular prosecution of the proceeding.
Spear v Pendill, 164 Mich 331 (1910).
 - * Defendants abused legal process by:
 - * Weaponizing the PPO system to gain custody leverage (762 documented instances of PPO weaponization by Emily Watson alone)
 - * Filing false emergency motions to deprive Plaintiff of rights
 - * Using perjured testimony to obtain court orders (50 documented instances of perjury)
 - * Filing vexatious and frivolous motions designed to financially exhaust Plaintiff
 - * Manipulating the Friend of the Court system
 - * The ulterior purpose of this abuse of process was not to obtain legitimate legal relief, but to:
 - * Permanently sever Plaintiff's parental relationship
 - * Punish Plaintiff for asserting his parental rights
 - * Gain leverage in custody proceedings through fraud
 - * Financially destroy Plaintiff to prevent him from advocating for himself
 - * As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff has incurred substantial costs, lost parenting time, and suffered severe emotional distress.

COUNT VI: DEFAMATION PER SE

(Against All Defendants)

MCL 600.2911

- * Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.
- * Under MCL 600.2911, defamation per se includes false statements that impute the commission of a crime, harm a person in their profession or business, or tend to disgrace or degrade.
- * Defendants made false and defamatory statements about Plaintiff, including:
 - * False allegations of child abuse and neglect reported to CPS
 - * False sworn testimony alleging criminal conduct
 - * False statements to law enforcement
 - * False statements to schools, medical providers, and community members
 - * False allegations in PPO petitions and court filings
- * These statements were made with knowledge of their falsity or with reckless disregard for the truth, as demonstrated by 100 documented instances and 50 documented instances of perjury with contradicting evidence.
- * The false statements are defamatory per se because they:
 - * Impute criminal conduct (child abuse, domestic violence)
 - * Harm Plaintiff in his profession and ability to earn a living
 - * Tend to disgrace and degrade Plaintiff in the community
- * As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff has suffered:
 - * Loss of employment and employment opportunities
 - * Loss of housing

- * Damage to reputation in the community
 - * Emotional distress and humiliation
 - * Loss of social relationships

COUNT VII: TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH ECONOMIC RELATIONS

(Against All Defendants)

Michigan Common Law

- * Plaintiff incorporates by reference all preceding allegations.
- * Under Michigan law, tortious interference with business or economic relations requires: (1) the existence of a valid business relationship or expectancy; (2) knowledge of the relationship or expectancy by the defendant; (3) intentional interference inducing or causing a breach or termination; and (4) resultant damage. Dalley v Dykema Gossett, 287 Mich App 296 (2010).
- * Defendants intentionally interfered with Plaintiff's economic relations by:
 - * Actions that directly caused Plaintiff's loss of employment
 - * Actions that caused Plaintiff to lose housing
 - * False reports and allegations that impaired Plaintiff's ability to obtain employment
 - * Financial exhaustion through vexatious litigation
- * These acts are documented through 50 instances of financial harm attributed to Watson family members, totaling 371 documented financial harm incidents by Emily Watson alone and 35 by the Watson Family collectively.

* As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff has suffered economic damages including but not limited to lost wages, lost housing, legal costs, and diminished earning capacity.

VI. DAMAGES

* As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' tortious conduct across all Counts, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer damages including but not limited to:

A. Economic Damages

- * Lost wages and employment income
- * Lost housing costs and relocation expenses
- * Legal fees and costs incurred in defending against false allegations
- * Medical and therapeutic costs
- * Transportation costs for attempted parenting time
- * Total economic damages estimated at $774,750.00 to $5,280,250.00

B. Non-Economic Damages

- * Severe emotional distress from 571+ days of separation from child
- * Pain and suffering from the destruction of the parent-child bond
- * Loss of companionship, love, and affection of child
- * Humiliation and degradation from false public accusations
- * Post-traumatic stress disorder symptoms

- * Depression and anxiety
- * Loss of life enjoyment

C. Exemplary/Punitive Damages

- * Defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, and malicious
- * The coordinated nature of the conspiracy demonstrates conscious disregard for Plaintiff's rights
- * Punitive damages are necessary to deter Defendants and others from similar conduct
- * Michigan law permits exemplary damages where the defendant's conduct is willful and wanton. Kewin v Massachusetts Mutual Life Ins Co, 409 Mich 401 (1980)

VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Andrew J. Pigors respectfully prays that this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor and against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- * Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but not less than $500,000.00;
- * Economic damages for all documented financial losses including lost wages, housing, legal costs, and related expenses;
- * Non-economic damages for emotional distress, pain and suffering, loss of parental companionship, humiliation, and diminished quality of life;
- * Exemplary/Punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish Defendants for their willful, wanton, and malicious conduct and to deter similar conduct in the future;

- * Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as allowed by law;
- * Costs and reasonable litigation expenses incurred in prosecuting this action;
- * Injunctive relief ordering Defendants to cease all tortious conduct, including:
 - * Cessation of all false reports to CPS, law enforcement, and other agencies
 - * Cessation of all defamatory statements
 - * Cessation of all interference with Plaintiff's parental rights
 - * Cessation of all intimidation and harassment
- * Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

VIII. JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable pursuant to MCR 2.508 and the Michigan Constitution, Article I, Section 14.

VERIFICATION

I, Andrew J. Pigors, being duly sworn, state that I have read this Complaint and that the facts stated herein are true to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, and that this Complaint is not being filed for any improper purpose.
