STATEMENT:

On 4/8/24, the Muskegon FOC recieved a grievance from Mr. Pigors. In his grievance, Mr. Pigors states that he has been trying for days to have the safety and well-being of his son taken seriously. He states that he has been thwarted at every effort to file the correct paperwork, speak to the correct person, call the right place, all to be told denied. He states that he believes that as a man he feels that sexism and an established systemic bias favors women/mothers in regards to custody and PPO cases.

In order to respond to this grievance, the case file was reviewed, and relevant staff were interviewed.

A review of this case shows that Mr. Pigors filed this case as a custody case. As such, the FOC is not involved except to conduct a facilitative informational gathering conference. That conference had not been scheduled as of the date that Mr. Pigors filed this grievance.

The FOC grievance process is a statutorily-defined process for the public to file a complaint regarding FOC staff or procedures. Mr. Pigor's case is a privately-filed, new custody case. As such, the FOC has not been involved in his case, and therefore there are no FOC actions that can be grieved. Therefore, this is a non-grievable issue.
