PRESENT: HONORABLE Jenny L. McNeill
Family Court Judge

A Complaint for Custody having been filed in this matter involving a minor child; the parties having had a Facilitative Information Gathering Conference with a representative of Family Court Services on 4/26/2024; Plaintiff having attended said Conference virtually; Defendant having attended said Conference virtually; said conference having resulted in no agreement upon the terms of an Ex Parte Order for Custody, Parenting time and Child Support; the Court being so advised and it appearing to the Court that the entry of an Ex Parte Order pursuant to MCR 3.207 is now appropriate:

FINDINGS

1. The parties, never married, have one minor child, age ^{one} two and a half. The parties agree to physical custody and parenting time. The parties were unable to agree to legal custody,
2. The mother has been granted a Personal Protection Order (23-005907-PP) against the father. The parties met separately for the conference.
3. The mother alleges that the father's behavior has been erratic and that she found what appeared to be cocaine in a cut-off straw in her home after the father moved out. The mother alleges that the father has a past history of drug use and expressed concern that his alleged erratic behavior is related to current use.
