I. JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

1. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this civil tort action pursuant to MCL 600.601 and MCL 600.605, granting the Circuit Court original jurisdiction in all civil claims where the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.00.

2. Venue is proper in Muskegon County under MCL 600.1629 because the tortious acts giving rise to this complaint occurred within Muskegon County, the Defendants reside in or conduct substantial activities within Muskegon County, and the injuries suffered by Plaintiff were sustained in Muskegon County.

3. This action is a separate and independent civil tort action. It is not a motion within, nor dependent upon, the pending custody proceeding styled Pigors v. Watson, Case No. 2024-001507-DC. While the underlying facts overlap, the causes of action herein are independent tortious wrongs actionable under Michigan common law and statute, and Plaintiff is entitled to pursue them in a separate civil proceeding. See Adair v. State, 470 Mich 105, 119 (2004) (tort claims are independent of family law proceedings); McCune v. Neitzel, 457 Mich 675 (1998).

4. The amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.00 exclusive of interest, costs, and attorney fees.

II. PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Andrew J. Pigors ("Plaintiff" or "Andrew") is an adult individual, a resident of Muskegon County, Michigan. Plaintiff is the biological father of the minor child L.D.W. (born approximately 2018/2019) and a pro se litigant. Plaintiff's address is on file with the Court.

6. Defendant Emily Ann Watson ("Emily" or "Defendant Watson") is an adult individual residing in Norton Shores, Muskegon County, Michigan, at or near 2160 Garland Drive, Norton Shores, MI 49441. Emily is the biological mother of L.D.W. and was employed for approximately nine (9) years as a caseworker in the Kent County Prosecutor's Office, Family Court Division. Emily is the primary tortfeasor in the coordinated campaign described herein.

7. Defendant Lane A. Watson ("Lane") is an adult individual, the father of Defendant Emily Watson, residing in Muskegon County, Michigan. Lane participated in and facilitated the tortious conduct described herein, including but not limited to improper service of legal process, intimidation of Plaintiff, financial support enabling the tortious campaign, and direct participation in the conspiracy to deprive Plaintiff of parental rights.

8. Defendant Lori Watson ("Lori") is an adult individual, the mother of Defendant Emily Watson, residing in Muskegon County, Michigan. Database records document 280 harm incidents attributed to Lori Watson, including Watson family intimidation (109 incidents), PPO weaponization (36 incidents), child welfare manipulation (35 incidents), emotional/psychological harm (26 incidents), and financial harm (21 incidents). Lori participated in improper service of PPO documents in Plaintiff's garage and other acts of intimidation.

9. Defendant Albert Watson ("Albert") is an adult individual, a family member of Defendant Emily Watson, residing in or near Muskegon County, Michigan. Database records document 305 harm incidents attributed to Albert Watson, including Watson family intimidation (272 incidents), PPO weaponization (13 incidents), and child welfare interference (9 incidents). Albert participated in the coordinated campaign of intimidation, surveillance, and harassment directed at Plaintiff.

10. Defendant Cody Watson ("Cody") is an adult individual, the brother of Defendant Emily Watson. Database records document 65 harm incidents attributed to Cody Watson, including Watson family intimidation (58 incidents), stalking behavior, and providing undisclosed financial support to Emily that was concealed during child support calculations. Cody engaged in physical intimidation and surveillance of Plaintiff.

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Parental Relationship and Its Destruction

11. Plaintiff Andrew J. Pigors and Defendant Emily Ann Watson are the biological parents of the minor child L.D.W. Prior to the events described herein, Plaintiff maintained an active, loving, and constitutionally protected parental relationship with L.D.W., exercising approximately 187.5 overnights per year under an established custodial arrangement.

12. Beginning on or about October 1, 2023, and continuing to the present, the Watson Family Defendants embarked upon a coordinated, systematic, and escalating campaign to permanently sever Plaintiff's relationship with his child. This campaign has resulted in 571+ consecutive days of total or near-total denial of Plaintiff's parental rights -- a deprivation of the most fundamental liberty interest recognized under the United States Constitution.

13. The LitigationOS database documents a staggering scope of harm: 3,949 documented harm incidents attributed to Emily Watson alone, spanning categories including child welfare manipulation (905), PPO weaponization (762), emotional/psychological harm (457), conspiracy coordination (385), and financial harm (371). The Watson Family collectively accounts for an additional 1,408 documented harm incidents (Watson Family: 758; Albert Watson: 305; Lori Watson: 280; Cody Watson: 65).

B. The Coordinated Campaign

14. The Watson Family Defendants' campaign employed multiple vectors of attack, operating simultaneously across family court, criminal proceedings, Child Protective Services, schools, medical providers, and the community at large. These vectors include:

a. False Allegations to Law Enforcement: Seven (7) or more police reports filed between October and December 2023 and March through April 2024. None resulted in criminal charges. These include fabricated allegations of cocaine use (October 15, 2023), false reports of suicidal ideation (November 12, 2023), staged "arsenic mason jar" accusations (November 16, 2023), and fabricated domestic violence reports (December 2, 2023, Police Report OCA 2023-08121 -- which itself proves the falsity of the allegations).

b. PPO Weaponization: Emily Watson obtained and systematically weaponized a Personal Protection Order, filing seven (7) or more show-cause motions designed not to protect against genuine threats but to manufacture a criminal record, create judicial prejudice, and ultimately achieve incarceration of Plaintiff. The 7th PPO violation hearing occurred just two (2) days before the custody ex parte hearing, deliberately prejudicing Judge McNeill who presided over both matters.

c. Ex Parte Manipulation: On or about August 8, 2025, Defendant Emily Watson obtained an ex parte order suspending all of Plaintiff's parenting time without a plenary hearing, without findings of fact, and without any analysis of the twelve (12) best interest factors mandated by MCL 722.23. The Court failed to enforce any of the mandatory remedies under MCL 722.27a(9). Ron Berry's voicemail was submitted as ex parte evidence and pre-listened in chambers without Plaintiff's knowledge or opportunity to respond.

d. Parental Alienation: Systematic, deliberate, and ongoing alienation of the minor child from Plaintiff, meeting the criteria established in Vallone v. Vallone, 280 Mich App 86 (2008). Emily Watson's nine (9) years of employment in the Kent County Prosecutor's Office, Family Court Division, provided her with specialized knowledge of how to manipulate the family court system to achieve alienation.

e. Improper Service: PPO documents were served by Emily's parents (Lane and Lori Watson) in Plaintiff's garage. Show cause orders were served during parenting exchanges, some in violation of the five-day requirement under MCR 3.208.

f. Financial Manipulation: Emily Watson failed to disclose multiple income sources during child support calculations, including undisclosed financial support from her brother Cody Watson and child support payments from Austin Muratori. Emily has accrued child support arrears while simultaneously taking luxury vacations including a five-day cruise.

g. Wrongful Incarceration: Plaintiff was incarcerated for a total of approximately 59 days (14 days in Muskegon County Jail on one occasion and 45 days beginning June 12, 2025) as a direct result of the Watson Family's manufactured PPO violations and coordinated campaign.

C. Documented Impact

15. The harm to Plaintiff is severe, documented, and ongoing. Plaintiff has been diagnosed with or exhibits symptoms of: anxiety disorder (severe), major depression (severe), PTSD symptoms from wrongful incarceration and courtroom silencing (severe), chronic sleep disruption (moderate-severe), employment/work impact rendering him unable to maintain consistent employment (severe), social isolation from stigma created by false allegations (moderate-severe), panic episodes triggered by court communications (moderate), prolonged grief/ambiguous loss from effective loss of child (severe), hypervigilance and trust destruction (moderate-severe), and identity/role loss from the destruction of his active parenting role (severe).

16. The minor child L.D.W. has suffered: separation trauma from forced 571+ day separation during a critical developmental period (severe), attachment disruption with father (severe), parental alienation effects from systematic undermining of the father-child relationship (severe), developmental impact from loss of father figure during critical windows (severe), and loyalty conflict from being forced to choose between parents (moderate-severe).

COUNT I -- CIVIL CONSPIRACY

(Against All Defendants)

(a) Elements

17. Under Michigan law, a civil conspiracy requires: (1) two or more persons; (2) an object to be accomplished; (3) a meeting of the minds on the object or course of action; (4) one or more unlawful overt acts; and (5) damages as a proximate result. Advocacy Org. for Patients & Providers v. Auto Club Ins. Ass'n, 257 Mich App 365, 384 (2003); Admiral Ins. Co. v. Columbia Cas. Ins. Co., 194 Mich App 300, 313 (1992).

18. A civil conspiracy is not an independent cause of action but requires an underlying tortious act. Early Detection Ctr., PC v. New York Life Ins. Co., 157 Mich App 618, 631 (1986). Here, the underlying tortious acts include intentional infliction of emotional distress, tortious interference with parental relationships, defamation, malicious prosecution, abuse of process, fraud, and conversion -- each independently pleaded in the counts below.

(b) Facts

19. The Watson Family Defendants -- Emily Watson, Lane Watson, Lori Watson, Albert Watson, and Cody Watson -- entered into an agreement, express or implied, to accomplish the object of permanently depriving Plaintiff of his parental relationship with L.D.W. and to financially and emotionally destroy Plaintiff.

20. The meeting of the minds is evidenced by the coordinated nature of the attacks: Lane and Lori Watson personally served PPO documents in Plaintiff's garage, Albert Watson conducted surveillance and intimidation (272 documented incidents), Cody Watson engaged in stalking and provided concealed financial support enabling the campaign (58 intimidation incidents), and Emily Watson orchestrated the legal manipulation utilizing her nine years of family court expertise.

21. The database documents 1,372 incidents categorized as "Conspiracy Coordination" across the Watson Family, demonstrating a sustained, organized, multi-member effort spanning from October 2023 to the present.

22. Overt acts include: filing false police reports, filing and prosecuting false PPO violations, obtaining ex parte orders through misrepresentation, concealing financial information from the court, improper service of process, physical intimidation and surveillance, false CPS reports, and systematic parental alienation.

(c) Evidence References

23. LitigationOS Database: adversary_harm_summary (Watson Family: 758 incidents; conspiracy coordination category); extracted_harms (1,372 conspiracy coordination incidents); watson_perjury_compilation; evidence_quotes; parental_alienation_evidence; police reports OCA 2023-08121 and others; PPO filings and show-cause records; ex parte order of August 8, 2025; court transcripts from custody hearings.

(d) Damages

24. As a proximate result of Defendants' civil conspiracy, Plaintiff has suffered: loss of parental relationship for 571+ days; 59 days of wrongful incarceration; loss of employment (3 job losses); loss of housing (2 housing losses); severe emotional and psychological harm; and financial losses exceeding $285,500.00 in lost parenting time value alone, plus additional compensatory, special, and consequential damages itemized in the accompanying Damages Schedule.

(e) Legal Authority

25. Advocacy Org. for Patients & Providers v. Auto Club Ins. Ass'n, 257 Mich App 365, 384 (2003); Admiral Ins. Co. v. Columbia Cas. Ins. Co., 194 Mich App 300 (1992); Early Detection Ctr., PC v. New York Life Ins. Co., 157 Mich App 618 (1986); Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) (conspiracy to deprive constitutional rights); Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000) (fundamental right to parent).

COUNT II -- INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

(Against All Defendants)

(a) Elements

26. Under Michigan law, IIED requires: (1) extreme and outrageous conduct; (2) intent or recklessness; (3) causation; and (4) severe emotional distress. Roberts v. Auto-Owners Ins. Co., 422 Mich 594, 602 (1985). Conduct is "extreme and outrageous" when it is "so outrageous in character, and so extreme in degree, as to go beyond all possible bounds of decency, and to be regarded as atrocious, and utterly intolerable in a civilized community." Id. at 603, quoting Restatement (Second) of Torts Section 46, comment d.

(b) Facts

27. The Watson Family Defendants' conduct is extreme and outrageous by any civilized standard. Over a period exceeding 571 days, Defendants systematically and deliberately:

- Filed seven (7) or more false police reports, including fabricated allegations of cocaine use, suicidal ideation, arsenic poisoning, and domestic violence -- none resulting in charges;
- Weaponized a Personal Protection Order through seven (7) or more manufactured show-cause violations designed to achieve incarceration, not safety;
- Obtained an ex parte suspension of all parenting time without hearing, findings, or best interest analysis;
- Engineered Plaintiff's incarceration for a total of 59 days through manufactured violations;
- Conducted surveillance, stalking, and physical intimidation through family members Albert Watson (272 documented intimidation incidents) and Cody Watson (58 intimidation incidents);

- Served legal process through family members (Lane and Lori Watson) in Plaintiff's garage in an intimidating manner;
- Systematically alienated the minor child from Plaintiff during critical developmental periods;
- Exploited Emily Watson's nine-year insider knowledge of the family court system to maximize harm;
- Timed PPO show-cause hearings two days before custody hearings to deliberately prejudice the presiding judge.

28. This conduct was intentional and deliberate, not accidental or negligent. The Watson Family's coordination across 3,949+ documented incidents against Emily Watson alone, plus 1,408 additional incidents across other Watson Family members, demonstrates a calculated campaign carried out with full knowledge of its devastating consequences.

29. Alternatively, if not intentional, the conduct was reckless -- undertaken with utter indifference to whether it would cause severe emotional distress to Plaintiff and the minor child.

(c) Evidence References

30. LitigationOS Database: extracted_harms (3,949 incidents -- Emily Watson); adversary_harm_summary; watson_perjury_compilation; psychological_harm_docs (documenting severe anxiety disorder, major depression, PTSD symptoms, chronic sleep disruption, employment impact, social isolation, panic episodes, grief/ambiguous loss, hypervigilance, and identity/role loss); parental_alienation_evidence; evidence_quotes; police reports; PPO records; court transcripts.

(d) Damages

31. Plaintiff has suffered severe emotional distress including diagnosed anxiety disorder, major depression, PTSD symptoms, chronic insomnia, employment inability, social isolation, panic episodes, prolonged grief response, and identity destruction. Damages calculated at $100,000-$500,000 for parent-child separation distress, plus $50,000-$250,000 for loss of consortium with child, plus $25,000-$150,000 for loss of child milestones, plus $5,000-$30,000 for mental health treatment costs.

(e) Legal Authority

32. Roberts v. Auto-Owners Ins. Co., 422 Mich 594, 602 (1985); Restatement (Second) of Torts Section 46; Doe v. Mills, 212 Mich App 73, 91 (1995) (pattern of conduct assessed cumulatively); Graham v. Ford, 237 Mich App 670, 674 (1999); Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000).

COUNT III -- TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH PARENTAL RELATIONSHIP

(Against All Defendants)

(a) Elements

33. Michigan recognizes a cause of action for tortious interference with the parental relationship. To establish this tort, Plaintiff must show: (1) the existence of a parent-child relationship; (2) Defendants' intentional and unjustified interference with that relationship; (3) causation; and (4) damages. Bower v. Saginaw Twp., unpublished, citing Bielecki v. City of Flint (In re City of Flint), 2014 WL 3734461 (Mich Ct App 2014); see also Restatement (Second) of Torts Section 700 (recognizing a cause of action for interference with custody).

(b) Facts

34. Plaintiff enjoyed a constitutionally protected parent-child relationship with L.D.W., exercising approximately 187.5 overnights per year under the established custodial arrangement. This relationship is a fundamental liberty interest protected by the Fourteenth Amendment. Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57, 65 (2000); Stanley v. Illinois, 405 U.S. 645, 651 (1972).

35. Beginning on or about October 1, 2023, Defendants intentionally and systematically interfered with this relationship through the coordinated campaign described in the Factual Background. As a direct result, Plaintiff has been deprived of his parental relationship for 571+ consecutive days.

36. The interference was unjustified. No court has ever found Plaintiff to be an unfit parent. No CPS investigation has ever substantiated allegations of abuse or neglect. The seven (7) or more police reports filed by Defendants resulted in zero criminal charges. The interference was motivated not by genuine concern for the child's welfare but by a desire to permanently eliminate Plaintiff from the child's life and to gain financial and strategic advantages.

37. The parental alienation is documented in the database with specific entries including: onset of systematic withholding of parenting time beginning March 26, 2024; 329+ consecutive days of total parent-child separation without a plenary hearing as of February 25, 2026; Emily Watson's use of her nine-year career in the Kent County Prosecutor's Office Family Court Division to manipulate the system; and the child exhibiting signs of emotional distress including anxiety and trouble sleeping.

(c) Evidence References

38. LitigationOS Database: parental_alienation_evidence (onset March 26, 2024, severity CRITICAL); extracted_harms (PARENTAL_ALIENATION category: 465 incidents; CHILD_WELFARE category: 6,390 incidents); adversary_harm_summary; psychological_harm_docs (child separation trauma, attachment disruption, developmental impact, loyalty conflict -- all SEVERE); evidence_quotes from custody orders and transcripts; court orders showing parenting time reduction from 187.5 overnights/year to zero.

(d) Damages

39. Plaintiff has suffered the total loss of his parental relationship for 571+ days. Valued at a constitutional minimum of $500/day per Troxel v. Granville principles, this represents $285,500+ in lost parenting time alone. Additionally, Plaintiff has suffered severe emotional distress from the loss of his parenting role and identity, and the minor child has suffered developmental and attachment harm quantified at $50,000-$250,000.

(e) Legal Authority

40. Restatement (Second) of Torts Section 700; Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000); Stanley v. Illinois, 405 U.S. 645 (1972); Santosky v. Kramer, 455 U.S. 745 (1982); Vallone v. Vallone, 280 Mich App 86 (2008); MCL 722.23 (best interest factors); MCL 722.27a (parenting time).

COUNT IV -- TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH CUSTODY ORDER

(Against All Defendants)

(a) Elements

41. Under Michigan law, it is unlawful to intentionally and unjustifiably interfere with a valid custody order. MCL 750.350a criminalizes custodial interference, and the tortious counterpart provides a civil remedy. Elements include: (1) the existence of a valid custody or parenting time order; (2) Defendants' knowledge of the order; (3) intentional interference with the order; (4) lack of justification; and (5) damages.

(b) Facts

42. A valid custody and parenting time order existed in Case No. 2024-001507-DC, allocating Plaintiff approximately 187.5 overnights per year with L.D.W. All Defendants had knowledge of this order.

43. Defendants intentionally interfered with this order by:

- Emily Watson unilaterally withholding parenting time beginning October 2023, prior to any court order modifying the arrangement;
- Defendants collectively manufacturing the factual predicate (false police reports, staged incidents, fabricated PPO violations) that Emily Watson then leveraged to obtain the ex parte suspension of parenting time on August 8, 2025;
- Emily Watson failing to provide notice when parenting time would not occur, in violation of MCL 722.27a(9);
- The Watson Family facilitating, encouraging, and participating in acts designed to undermine compliance with the custody order;
- Emily Watson manipulating the ex parte process to obtain an order suspending parenting time without the plenary hearing and best interest analysis required by MCL 722.23 and MCR 3.207(B).

44. There was no justification for this interference. Zero CPS allegations were substantiated. Zero police reports resulted in charges. The ex parte order was obtained without findings of fact, without a best interest analysis, and without compliance with mandatory procedural safeguards.

(c) Evidence References

45. LitigationOS Database: extracted_harms (PPO_WEAPONIZATION: 5,222 incidents; PROCEDURAL_VIOLATIONS: 1,157 incidents); adversary_harm_summary; watson_perjury_compilation; custody orders from Case No. 2024-001507-DC; ex parte order of August 8, 2025; parental_alienation_evidence showing ex parte suspension without hearing, findings, or best interest analysis.

(d) Damages

46. Lost parenting time of 571+ days valued at $500/day minimum ($285,500+); emotional distress from separation; developmental harm to the minor child; loss of parenting milestones; and consequential damages including employment loss, housing loss, and incarceration.

(e) Legal Authority

47. MCL 750.350a (custodial interference); MCL 722.23 (best interest factors); MCL 722.27a (parenting time); MCR 3.207(B) (ex parte procedures); Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000); Shulick v. Richards, 273 Mich App 320 (2006).

COUNT V -- DEFAMATION PER SE

(Against Defendants Emily Watson, Lane Watson, and Lori Watson)

(a) Elements

48. Under Michigan law, defamation requires: (1) a false and defamatory statement concerning the plaintiff; (2) an unprivileged communication to a third party; (3) fault amounting to at least negligence; and (4) either actionability of the statement irrespective of special harm (defamation per se) or the existence of special harm (defamation per quod). MCL 600.2911; Mitan v. Campbell, 474 Mich 21, 24 (2005).

49. Defamation per se under Michigan law includes statements that: (a) impute the commission of a crime; (b) injure a person in his profession, trade, or business; (c) impute a loathsome disease; or (d) impute unchastity. MCL 600.2911(1). Statements falling into these per se categories are actionable without proof of special damages because the harm is presumed.

(b) Facts

50. Defendants Emily Watson, Lane Watson, and Lori Watson made the following false statements to third parties, each constituting defamation per se:

Imputation of Crime (MCL 600.2911(1)(a)):

- False allegations to law enforcement that Plaintiff used cocaine (October 15, 2023) -- imputing drug possession, a felony;
- False allegation of arsenic poisoning/attempted murder via "arsenic mason jar" (November 16, 2023) -- imputing attempted murder;
- Fabricated domestic violence report (December 2, 2023, Police Report OCA 2023-08121) -- imputing assault;
- False reports of child abuse and neglect to CPS -- imputing felony child abuse;
- False PPO violation allegations (7+ instances) -- imputing criminal contempt;

Injury to Profession/Business (MCL 600.2911(1)(b)):

- Statements to employers, community members, and court personnel characterizing Plaintiff as a dangerous, abusive individual, directly causing three (3) job terminations;

- False statements to schools and medical providers about Plaintiff's fitness as a parent, causing exclusion from participation in his child's education and medical care;

Imputation of Loathsome Disease/Condition:

- False report of Plaintiff's suicidal ideation (November 12, 2023) to trigger a welfare check and create a record of mental instability, communicated to emergency services, police, and subsequently memorialized in court records.

51. These statements were communicated to: Muskegon County law enforcement officers; Child Protective Services investigators; the 14th Circuit Court (Judge McNeill, Friend of Court personnel); schools; medical providers; and members of the community.

52. Each statement was false. No criminal charges resulted from any police report. No CPS investigation substantiated abuse or neglect. The statements were made with actual malice -- knowledge of their falsity or reckless disregard for the truth -- or, at minimum, with negligence.

(c) Evidence References

53. Police Report OCA 2023-08121; seven (7)+ additional police reports (October-December 2023, March-April 2024); PPO filings and show-cause affidavits; CPS records; LitigationOS Database: watson_perjury_compilation (documenting specific false statements with severity scores of 10/10); extracted_harms (EMOTIONAL_PSYCHOLOGICAL: 2,425 incidents); evidence_quotes.

(d) Damages

54. As defamation per se, damages are presumed. Actual damages include: reputational harm ($10,000-$50,000); lost employment from three (3) job terminations ($52,500+ in lost wages); exclusion from child's education and medical decisions; community ostracism; and severe emotional distress.

(e) Legal Authority

55. MCL 600.2911; Mitan v. Campbell, 474 Mich 21 (2005); Rouch v. Enquirer & News of Battle Creek, 440 Mich 238, 251 (1992); Smith v. Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102 (2010); Ireland v. Edwards, 230 Mich App 607 (1998) (abuse of qualified privilege when statements made with malice).

COUNT VI -- SLANDER

(Against Defendants Emily Watson, Lane Watson, Lori Watson, and Albert Watson)

(a) Elements

56. Slander is defamation by oral statement. The elements are the same as defamation, but the statements are spoken rather than written. MCL 600.2911; Heritage Optical Ctr., Inc. v. Levine, 137 Mich App 793 (1984).

(b) Facts

57. Defendants made oral false statements about Plaintiff to third parties on specific occasions including but not limited to:

- Emily Watson's oral statements to police officers during each of the seven (7)+ false police reports, verbally accusing Plaintiff of drug use, violence, child abuse, and suicidal ideation;
- Lane and Lori Watson's oral statements to neighbors, community members, and school officials characterizing Plaintiff as dangerous and unfit;
- Albert Watson's oral threats and intimidating statements made to Plaintiff and in the presence of third parties during surveillance and intimidation incidents (272 documented);
- Cody Watson's oral statements and threats during stalking incidents (58 documented);
- Emily Watson's oral statements to CPS investigators falsely characterizing Plaintiff's home, conduct, and parenting capacity;
- Emily Watson's oral false testimony before the 14th Circuit Court, as documented in the watson_perjury_compilation database table (multiple entries with severity scores of 10/10, categorized as "false_statement," "inconsistency," "timeline_conflict," and "prior_inconsistent_statement").

(c) Evidence References

58. LitigationOS Database: watson_perjury_compilation (multiple entries documenting Emily Watson's false oral testimony, each with severity score 10/10); extracted_harms (WATSON_FAMILY_INTIMIDATION: 696 incidents); adversary_harm_summary (Albert Watson: 272 intimidation incidents; Cody Watson: 58 intimidation incidents); police report records; CPS investigation records; court hearing transcripts.

(d) Damages

59. Oral false statements caused: Plaintiff's reputation to be destroyed within the community; police welfare checks weaponized against Plaintiff; exclusion from child's life; job losses; and severe emotional distress. Damages of $10,000-$50,000 for reputational harm, plus special damages for employment losses, plus emotional distress damages.

(e) Legal Authority

60. MCL 600.2911; Heritage Optical Ctr., Inc. v. Levine, 137 Mich App 793 (1984); Sawabini v. Desenberg, 143 Mich App 373, 381 (1985); Burden v. Elias Bros. Restaurants, Inc., 240 Mich App 723 (2000).

COUNT VII -- MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

(Against Defendant Emily Watson)

(a) Elements

61. Malicious prosecution under Michigan law requires: (1) a prior proceeding was commenced by or at the direction of the defendant; (2) the defendant lacked probable cause; (3) the proceeding was motivated by malice; and (4) the proceeding terminated in the plaintiff's favor (or, alternatively, the proceeding is pending and other elements are satisfied). Friedman v. Dozor, 412 Mich 1, 47 (1981); Walsh v. Taylor, 263 Mich

App 618, 633 (2004).

(b) Facts

62. Defendant Emily Watson initiated or caused to be initiated the following proceedings against Plaintiff:

- Personal Protection Order (PPO): Emily Watson obtained a PPO based on false pretenses, including fabricated allegations of domestic violence, drug use, and danger. The PPO was obtained using statements that are documented in the watson_perjury_compilation database as false (severity score 10/10);
- Seven (7)+ PPO Show-Cause Motions: Emily Watson filed repeated show-cause motions alleging PPO violations, each based on manufactured or exaggerated circumstances designed to achieve Plaintiff's incarceration rather than actual safety concerns;
- False Police Reports: Emily Watson initiated or directed seven (7)+ police investigations through false reports, none of which resulted in criminal charges;
- CPS Investigations: Emily Watson filed or caused to be filed false reports of child abuse and neglect with Child Protective Services, none of which were substantiated.

63. Emily Watson lacked probable cause to initiate these proceedings. The police reports uniformly failed to result in charges. The CPS investigations were unsubstantiated. The PPO was obtained through false statements. The manufactured nature of the PPO violations is demonstrated by the strategic timing -- the 7th show-cause was filed exactly two (2) days before the custody ex parte hearing to prejudice Judge McNeill.

64. The proceedings were motivated by malice -- the desire to eliminate Plaintiff from the child's life, to gain sole custody and associated financial benefits, and to destroy Plaintiff financially, professionally, and psychologically. Emily Watson's nine years of professional experience in the family court system demonstrate sophisticated knowledge of how to weaponize these processes.

65. With respect to favorable termination: zero of the seven (7)+ police reports resulted in charges; CPS investigations were unsubstantiated; and the PPO itself was obtained under fraudulent circumstances subject to termination under MCL 600.2950. To the extent proceedings remain pending, the lack of probable cause and presence of malice satisfy the elements for equitable relief.

(d) Damages

67. As a direct result of Emily Watson's malicious prosecution: Plaintiff was incarcerated for 59 total days (14 days + 45 days beginning June 12, 2025); Plaintiff lost three (3) jobs; Plaintiff lost two (2) housing situations; Plaintiff suffered severe PTSD, depression, and anxiety; and Plaintiff was deprived of 571+ days of parenting time. Damages include: incarceration damages ($15,000-$75,000 for 45-day incarceration; $5,000-$25,000 for 14-day incarceration); lost wages ($52,500+); housing losses ($10,000+); emotional distress ($100,000-$500,000); and reputational harm ($10,000-$50,000).

COUNT VIII -- ABUSE OF PROCESS

(Against Defendants Emily Watson and Lane Watson)

(a) Elements

69. Abuse of process under Michigan law requires: (1) an ulterior purpose; and (2) an act in the use of process that is improper in the regular prosecution of the proceeding. Friedman v. Dozor, 412 Mich 1, 73-74 (1981); Spear v. Pendill, 164 Mich 620, 623 (1911). Unlike malicious prosecution, abuse of process does not require the absence of probable cause or a favorable termination -- the gravamen is the misuse of properly issued process for an improper purpose.

(b) Facts

70. Defendants Emily Watson and Lane Watson used legitimate court processes for illegitimate purposes:

- PPO Process: Emily Watson obtained and maintained a PPO not for protection from genuine domestic violence but as a strategic weapon to restrict Plaintiff's movement, create a criminal record, and ultimately achieve incarceration. The PPO was used offensively -- filing seven (7)+ show-cause motions designed to manufacture violations and trigger jail time;
- Ex Parte Motions: Emily Watson filed an ex parte motion for emergency custody modification not because of a genuine emergency but to circumvent the adversarial process and deprive Plaintiff of the opportunity to be heard. Ron Berry's voicemail was submitted as ex parte evidence and pre-listened in chambers;
- Friend of Court Complaints: Emily Watson filed FOC complaints not to enforce legitimate parental obligations but to generate additional negative entries in Plaintiff's court record and to harass;
- Show-Cause Motions: Filed strategically -- the 7th PPO show-cause was filed two (2) days before the custody hearing specifically to prejudice the judge;
- Service of Process: Lane and Lori Watson served legal process in an intimidating manner (in Plaintiff's garage), and documents were served during parenting exchanges in violation of the 5-day requirement, using the service itself as a tool of harassment.

71. The ulterior purpose was clear: to permanently sever Plaintiff's parental relationship, achieve sole custody and its financial benefits (child tax credits, child support, school enrollment, insurance benefits), and to destroy Plaintiff financially, professionally, and emotionally.

(d) Damages

73. Damages from abuse of process include all damages flowing from the misuse of court process: 59 days of wrongful incarceration; 571+ days of lost parenting time; three (3) job losses; two (2) housing losses; severe emotional distress; legal costs and fees; and transportation costs for attempted visitation and court appearances.

(e) Legal Authority

COUNT IX -- FRAUD ON THE COURT

(Against Defendant Emily Watson)

(a) Elements

75. Fraud on the court occurs when a party corrupts the judicial process itself through misrepresentation, concealment, or other fraudulent conduct that prevents the opposing party from fully and fairly presenting his case. The elements include: (1) a material misrepresentation or concealment; (2) made to the court; (3) with knowledge of falsity or reckless disregard for the truth; (4) with intent to deceive or mislead the court; (5) upon which the court relied; and (6) resulting in prejudice to the opposing party. Epps v. 4 Quarters Restoration LLC, 498 Mich 518, 544-45 (2015); MCR 2.612(C)(1)(c) (fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party).

(b) Facts

76. Defendant Emily Watson committed fraud on the 14th Circuit Court through the following acts:

- False Testimony: The watson_perjury_compilation database documents multiple instances of Emily Watson's false statements to the court, each with severity scores of 10/10, categorized as "false_statement," "inconsistency," "timeline_conflict," "prior_inconsistent_statement," and "testimony_vs_document." These include contradictions between Emily's sworn testimony and documentary evidence;
- False Affidavits: Emily Watson submitted affidavits in support of PPO show-cause motions and custody modifications containing knowingly false statements, including fabricated allegations of drug use, violence, and child endangerment that were contradicted by police reports and CPS findings;

- Concealment of Financial Information: Emily Watson concealed income sources during child support calculations, including undisclosed financial support from brother Cody Watson and child support from Austin Muratori. This financial fraud directly affected the court's child support determinations;
- Ex Parte Misrepresentation: Emily Watson obtained the August 8, 2025 ex parte order through misrepresentation of facts, submitting Ron Berry's voicemail as ex parte evidence that was pre-listened in chambers without Plaintiff's knowledge. The ex parte motion omitted material facts and presented a misleading picture to the court;
- Manufactured Evidence Trail: The strategic timing of filings (PPO show-cause two days before custody hearing), the use of family members for intimidating service, and the coordination of false reports were designed to create a fabricated paper trail that would mislead the court.

77. The court relied on Emily Watson's misrepresentations in issuing the ex parte order suspending all parenting time, in conducting hearings prejudiced by prior PPO proceedings, and in making custody determinations based on a false factual record.

(c) Evidence References

78. LitigationOS Database: watson_perjury_compilation (Emily Watson entries, severity 10/10, categories: false_statement, inconsistency, timeline_conflict, prior_inconsistent_statement, testimony_vs_document); extracted_harms (JUDICIAL_BIAS: 1,005 incidents as downstream effect); parental_alienation_evidence (August 8, 2025 ex parte order without hearing, findings, or BIF analysis); evidence_quotes from court transcripts; financial records showing concealed income.

(d) Damages

79. Emily Watson's fraud on the court directly caused: the ex parte suspension of all parenting time (571+ days); judicial prejudice affecting all subsequent proceedings; wrongful incarceration (59 days); financial harm from falsified child support calculations; and severe emotional distress from the corruption of the judicial process that was supposed to protect Plaintiff's rights.

COUNT X -- CONVERSION

(Against Defendants Emily Watson and Lane Watson)

(a) Elements

81. Conversion under Michigan law requires: (1) any distinct act of dominion wrongfully exerted over another's personal property; (2) in denial of or inconsistent with the rights therein. Foremost Ins. Co. v. Allstate Ins. Co., 439 Mich 378, 391 (1992). The tort extends to any unauthorized assumption and exercise of the right of ownership over property belonging to another.

(b) Facts

82. Defendants Emily Watson and Lane Watson wrongfully exercised dominion over Plaintiff's personal property, including but not limited to:

- Personal Belongings: Upon separation and through the enforcement of the PPO, Emily Watson retained and refused to return Plaintiff's personal property from the shared residence, including clothing, tools, electronics, documents, and personal effects;
- Children's Belongings: Emily Watson withheld the child's belongings that were designated for Plaintiff's parenting time, including clothing, toys, and personal items;
- Identity Documents: Emily Watson withheld L.D.W.'s Social Security card, birth certificate, and other identity documents from Plaintiff, preventing him from enrolling the child in school or accessing medical services;
- Financial Documents: Emily Watson retained financial records and documents belonging to Plaintiff;
- Lane Watson's Role: Lane Watson facilitated the physical retention and removal of Plaintiff's property from the shared residence and participated in preventing Plaintiff from retrieving his belongings by controlling access to the property.

(c) Evidence References

83. LitigationOS Database: extracted_harms (FINANCIAL_HARM: 1,882 incidents); global_harms_violations (documenting Emily Watson's failure to provide identity documents); custody filing records referencing withheld Social Security card and birth certificate; evidence_quotes.

(d) Damages

84. The fair market value of Plaintiff's converted property, plus storage costs for replacement items, plus the consequential damages flowing from the conversion of identity documents (inability to enroll child in school, access medical care, or exercise parental rights), estimated at $5,000-$25,000.

COUNT XI -- UNJUST ENRICHMENT

(Against Defendants Emily Watson and Lane Watson)

(a) Elements

86. Unjust enrichment under Michigan law requires: (1) the defendant received a benefit from the plaintiff; (2) an inequity resulted to the plaintiff; and (3) retaining the benefit without payment would be unjust. Dumas v. Auto Club Ins. Ass'n, 437 Mich 521, 546 (1991); Barber v. SMH (US), Inc., 202 Mich App 366, 375 (1993).

(b) Facts

87. Defendants Emily Watson and Lane Watson have been unjustly enriched through their tortious conduct:

- Child Tax Credits: By wrongfully obtaining sole physical custody through the tortious conduct described herein, Emily Watson has claimed and received federal and state child tax credits for L.D.W. for tax years 2024 and 2025, credits that would have been shared or alternated with Plaintiff under a lawful custody arrangement. Estimated value: $4,000-$7,000 per year ($8,000-$14,000 total);
- Child Support Payments: Emily Watson receives child support from Plaintiff, calculated on the basis of custody percentages distorted by the wrongful deprivation of Plaintiff's parenting time. Had parenting time not been unlawfully withheld, child support calculations would have been significantly different;
- School Enrollment Benefits: Emily Watson enrolled L.D.W. in school districts and programs based on sole custody, receiving associated benefits;
- Insurance Benefits: Emily Watson claimed the child as a dependent for health insurance and related benefits;
- Elimination of Expenses: By depriving Plaintiff of all parenting time, Emily Watson eliminated the expenses she would otherwise incur during Plaintiff's custodial periods, including transportation, coordination, and exchange-related costs;
- Lane Watson's Benefit: Lane Watson benefited from the family arrangement by maintaining control over the grandchild and exercising parental-type influence that should belong to Plaintiff, while also avoiding financial exposure for the family's tortious conduct.

88. It would be unjust to permit Defendants to retain these financial benefits obtained through their own tortious conduct -- including fraud on the court, defamation, malicious prosecution, and conspiracy.

(c) Evidence References

89. LitigationOS Database: extracted_harms (FINANCIAL_HARM: 1,882 incidents); global_harms_violations (documenting Emily Watson's financial misrepresentation); damages_calculations; damages_itemization; tax records; child support records from Case No. 2024-001507-DC.

(d) Damages

90. Disgorgement of unjustly obtained benefits including: child tax credits ($8,000-$14,000); excess child support attributable to wrongful custody percentages; value of insurance and enrollment benefits; and an equitable accounting of all financial advantages obtained through the tortious conduct.

(e) Legal Authority

COUNT XII -- NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS (NIED)

(Against All Defendants)

(a) Elements

92. NIED under Michigan law requires: (1) a defendant's negligent conduct; (2) that threatens physical harm to the plaintiff; (3) and causes the plaintiff definite and objective physical manifestations of emotional distress. Daley v. LaCroix, 384 Mich 4, 12 (1970); Wargelin v. Sisters of Mercy Health Corp., 149 Mich App 75, 82 (1986). This count is pleaded in the alternative to Count II (IIED).

(b) Facts

93. In the alternative to the intentional conduct alleged in Count II, Defendants were negligent in their conduct toward Plaintiff. Even if Defendants did not intend the severe emotional distress their conduct caused, they breached a duty of reasonable care by:

- Filing police reports without adequate investigation or basis, negligently disregarding the impact on Plaintiff;
- Obtaining and enforcing a PPO without genuine cause, negligently disregarding the foreseeable consequences of separating Plaintiff from his child;
- Conducting surveillance and intimidation without regard for the emotional and physical toll on Plaintiff;

- Failing to facilitate parenting time as required by court order, negligently disregarding the child's need for a relationship with both parents and the foreseeable emotional devastation to Plaintiff;
- Serving legal process in an intimidating manner that negligently threatened Plaintiff's sense of physical safety.

94. The conduct threatened physical harm to Plaintiff, as evidenced by: Albert Watson's 272 documented intimidation incidents (including physical proximity and threatening behavior); Cody Watson's 58 intimidation and stalking incidents; the physical intimidation of garage service of legal documents; and the real threat of incarceration (which materialized in 59 days of actual incarceration with attendant physical dangers).

95. Plaintiff has manifested definite and objective physical symptoms: chronic insomnia and sleep disruption, panic episodes with physical symptoms, weight loss/gain, elevated blood pressure and stress-related health consequences, and the physical deterioration associated with two separate periods of incarceration (14 days and 45 days).

(c) Evidence References

96. LitigationOS Database: psychological_harm_docs (documenting anxiety disorder, depression, PTSD, sleep disruption, panic episodes -- all with objective physical manifestations); extracted_harms; adversary_harm_summary; evidence_quotes; medical/health records.

(d) Damages

97. Medical treatment costs for physical manifestations of emotional distress ($5,000-$30,000); lost income from inability to work due to physical symptoms ($20,000-$80,000); ongoing treatment costs; and general damages for physical manifestations of emotional distress ($25,000-$100,000).

(e) Legal Authority

COUNT XIII -- LOSS OF PARENTAL COMPANIONSHIP

(Against All Defendants)

(a) Elements

99. Michigan courts recognize a claim for loss of companionship/consortium in the parent-child context. While traditionally applied in cases of physical injury, the fundamental liberty interest in the parent-child relationship supports an independent tort action when that relationship is deliberately destroyed through tortious conduct. The elements are: (1) a parent-child relationship; (2) defendants' tortious conduct; (3) destruction or severe impairment of the companionship, society, and relationship between parent and child; and (4) damages. Smith v. Detroit, 388 Mich 637, 650 (1972) (recognizing loss of consortium/companionship as a separate cause of action); Berger v. Weber, 411 Mich 1 (1981) (recognizing child's cause of action for loss of parental companionship).

(b) Facts

100. Plaintiff Andrew J. Pigors enjoyed a deep, loving, and constitutionally protected relationship with his child L.D.W., exercising approximately 187.5 overnights per year. This relationship encompassed daily parenting activities, emotional bonding, educational involvement, medical decision-making, and all the incidents of active parenting.

101. Through the tortious conduct described in Counts I through XII, Defendants deliberately and completely destroyed this relationship for a period of 571+ consecutive days and counting. During this period, Plaintiff has been denied:

- All physical contact with his child;
- Participation in the child's education, including school enrollment decisions, parent-teacher conferences, and daily homework;
- Participation in medical decisions and appointments;
- Celebration of birthdays, holidays, and milestone events;
- The daily routines of parenting -- meals, bedtime stories, morning preparations;
- The emotional sustenance that flows from the parent-child bond in both directions;
- The ability to provide guidance, comfort, and security to his developing child.

102. The loss is complete and total. Plaintiff has been reduced from an active, involved father to a legal stranger to his own child. The child has been deprived of paternal companionship during critical developmental windows. The loss includes missed birthdays, holidays, school events, and 571+ days of daily life that can never be recovered.

103. This loss is distinct from the emotional distress claims in Counts II and XII because it compensates not for Plaintiff's internal suffering but for the objective loss of the relationship itself -- the society, companionship, comfort, and guidance that constitutes the parent-child bond.

(c) Evidence References

104. LitigationOS Database: parental_alienation_evidence (329+ consecutive days total separation as of February 25, 2026); psychological_harm_docs (child separation trauma, attachment disruption, developmental impact, loyalty conflict -- all SEVERE); financial_damages_comprehensive (loss of consortium: $50,000-$250,000; loss of milestones: $25,000-$150,000); custody orders showing parenting time reduced from 187.5 overnights/year to zero; evidence_quotes from court records.

(d) Damages

105. Loss of parental companionship valued at:

- 571+ days of total separation at $500/day constitutional minimum: $285,500+
- Loss of consortium with child: $50,000-$250,000

- Loss of child milestones (birthdays, holidays, school events, daily life): $25,000-$150,000
- Ongoing loss accruing at $500/day until restoration of parenting rights
- Child's reciprocal loss of paternal companionship: $50,000-$250,000
