

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF MUSKEGON

ANDREW J. PIGORS,
Plaintiff

CASE 2024-001507-DC

HON. JENNY L. MCNEILL

vs.

ORDER REGARDING PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTION TO EX PARTE ORDER

EMILY A. WATSON,
Defendant

Defendant requested, and the Court signed an ex parte order suspending the Plaintiff's parenting time. An evidentiary hearing was held on September 4, 2025. At the previous hearing on August 22, 2025, the Court asked the Plaintiff to undergo an assessment at Health West. The matter was then set for an evidentiary hearing. At the evidentiary hearing, the Plaintiff testified that "everyone he tells his story too thinks that he is crazy." Further, the Plaintiff called the Defendant's father and was speaking rapidly and about being followed. At the hearing, the Plaintiff stated that he was accosted at the library; these same men were following him; he could not say what their names were; and stated that they were arrested. He believes that it is too much of a coincidence that the Defendant's father has a license plate on his vehicle with the same letters as the corporation that owns the trailer park. The Court has serious concerns regarding the state of the Plaintiff's mental health, which could be a culmination of the job loss, homelessness and family loss he has endured over the past several months. The Court considered supervised parenting time; and the Plaintiff insisted that he would not exercise supervised parenting time.
