

attached flash drive labeled "Andrews Call to My Dad". After the call ended, the Defendant's father called the police and filed a police report with the Norton Shores Police Department. Incident #NS2505044. Officer Ella Randall indicated that she believed this was a result of meth use.

4. On Thursday, 08/07/2025 at 10:49PM, the Defendant received a message from a friend of the Plaintiff, indicating that she was concerned about the Plaintiff's erratic behavior and was contacting the Defendant in concern about the party's minor child together. She indicated that the Plaintiff had been evicted and had been living out of his vehicle. The minor child has also indicated to the Defendant that a "mean guy came and drilled out his daddy's door", despite the Defendant telling the Plaintiff that he has not been evicted and that he was still residing in his trailer located at 1977 Whitehall Rd Trlr 17 North Muskegon, MI 49445.

5. On Friday, 08/08/2025 at 12:38AM, the Plaintiff drove past the Defendant's parents home address, which is located on a dead-end street, honking his horn as the drove past. Three minutes later, the Plaintiff called the Defendant's mother from the same phone number that he contacted the Defendant's father the previous night. The Defendant's mother did not answer the phone call.

6. On Friday, 08/08/2025 at 1:01 AM, the Plaintiff called the Defendant's boyfriend, Ron Berry's, business phone and left a voicemail with the same erratic behavior that he had been showing the night before. The Plaintiff indicates that he was chased around by 30 people that night and that he contacted the FBI and the attorney general regarding the Defendant and Defendant's boyfriend. The voicemail has been included in the attached flash drive labeled "Andrews Voicemail to Ron Berry".

7. For all of the above reasons, termination of the Plaintiff's parenting time, effective immediately, is necessary for the safety and security of the minor child, Lincoln Watson.

8. As provided in MCR 3.207(B)(1), irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result from the delay required to effect notice, or that notice itself will precipitate adverse action before an order can be issued.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, respectfully requests the following relief from this Honorable Court:

A. Suspend the Plaintiff's parenting time with minor child, Lincoln Watson;

B. Order Plaintiff to submit to a series of random drug screenings;
