

Proposed Order – Emergency Stay (MCR 7.311(E))

STATE OF MICHIGAN IN THE SUPREME COURT

ANDREW J. PIGORS, Petitioner, v.
Supreme Court Docket No. _____ HON. JENNY L. McNEILL, Respondent.

PROPOSED ORDER GRANTING EMERGENCY STAY AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
(MCR 7.311(E))

At a session of said Court, held on _____, 2025. PRESENT:
Justices of the Supreme Court of Michigan Upon consideration of Petitioner Andrew J. Pigors’s Emergency Verified Complaint for Superintending Control and his Motion for Immediate Stay under MCR
7.311(E), and the Court being fully advised in the premises, IT
IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Pursuant to MCR 7.311(E), all orders and enforcement actions of the 14th Circuit Court (Muskegon County) that suspend or restrict Petitioner’s parenting time in Case No. 2024-01507-DC—including any ex parte order entered on or about August 8, 2025—are STAYED effective immediately.
2. Any Personal Protection Order in Case No. 2023-5907-PP that impedes Petitioner’s lawful contact with the minor child is STAYED to the extent necessary to allow parenting-time communication and exchanges pending further order of this Court.
3. The 14th Circuit Court Clerk shall accept and docket forthwith any filings tendered by Petitioner in the referenced matters without imposing fees or requirements not authorized by statute or court rule. See MCR 1.109 and MCR 8.119.
4. Within fourteen (14) days, Respondent Judge Jenny L. McNeill and Interested Party Emily A. Watson shall SHOW CAUSE, in writing, why the stay should not be continued and why the relief requested in the Complaint should not be granted.
5. Pending further order, Petitioner’s parenting time is RESTORED to the last regular schedule in effect prior to August 8, 2025, without supervision or additional conditions, unless Respondents demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of endangerment under MCL 722.27a(3).
6. This Court retains jurisdiction to enforce, modify, or dissolve this Order and to grant any further appropriate relief.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
